Book Instructs Members to Adopt Sabotage as Weapon Instead of Striking, Because of Court Injunction Granted

Reference Made to Mansions and Rare Wine Enjoyed by the Wealthy Classes, As Compared to Hovels of Poor

"First Lessons in Sabotage" would be an apt title for today's chapter in the syndicalist trial of James McHugh, secretary of the local I. W. U. at the federal court here.

The entire session was occupied with readings from books, papers and pamphlets taken from the I. W. U. headquarters. The reading was done by the prosecuting attorneys, without interruption. The court had nothing to say and the attorney for the defense spoke only once, when he suggested that the reader read on.

"I am only reading the paragraphs that appear pertinent to the case," said Assistant District Attorney Calkins. "You can read the rest of it. I hope, however, that you will not avail yourself of your privilege to read it all."

If the defense does so, the trial will continue a long time, for there is a large table weighed down with the material.

SABOTAGE ADVISED
INSTEAD OF STRIKE

The subject was "Sabotage," and the reading depicted that sabotage is the new philosophy of I. W. U. men, designed to take the place of the strike and the boycott, made illegal in many of the states. The book read from was by Elizabeth Gurley Flynn, by W. C. Smith, under arrest in Washington in connection with the anti-radical campaign in the state of Washington, and others.

Members of the jury sat with half-closed eyes as if disinterested; others looked around the room and others leaned forward with the same expression of interest detected on the faces of spectators who came there to sympathize with the defense. The defendant wore an expression that indicated contempt for the interpretation the reader, by his comments, intended to give to the subject matter.

Much that was read depicted the guilt between the adherents to the doctrine and the capitalists. The book read from was by Elizabeth Gurley Flynn, by W. C. Smith, under arrest in Washington in connection with the anti-radical campaign in the state of Washington, and others.

Field Goal and Touchdown in First Half Give Crimson Team Early Lead.

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Nov. 22.—(By Associated Press.)—The big California-Stanford football game had shifted an hour before the game to 2 to 1 and 5 to 2 that California would win.

STANFORD FIELD, STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Nov. 22.—(By Associated Press.)—From 25,000 throats went up the shout which at 2:30 p. m. this afternoon welcomed back the good old American football game. The Cardinal eleven met the Blue and Gold heroes upon the time-honored field of battle. In thrice-and-thrice again was heard, the mighty shout was echoed, for after fourteen years of impatience, Rugby was at last vanquished.

"The king was dead. Long live the king," the shout went up, and the day was glad. Laughter and joy crowned the battle. Before sun up the great throng began its pilgrimage to Stanford, the mecca for beautiful girls and confident men, staid professors and white-haired grand mothers of college heroes. The bars were down. The people fared forth to bear their colors and shout and cry and make merry for the great day that was theirs.

Federal Judge Geiger Enjoins Firm Dealing in Liquors From Use of Premises for Sale of Booze Pending Case

Decision in Appeal Trial Now Before Supreme Court is Expected to Be Handed Down Early in December

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS. LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Nov. 22.—The prohibition amendment act is constitutional, Judge Geiger of the United States District court held today. He enjoined the J. F. Kishinger Company, wholesale liquor dealers, from using its premises for the sale of liquor until the civil suit against the company is tried.

SUPREME COURT MAY HAND DOWN DECISION ON PROHIBITION ACT

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—Final settlement of the question whether the war-time prohibition law, affecting the sale of liquor and beer, is constitutional or unconstitutional because of omission from the law of provisions for compensation is expected from the supreme court December 8, or not later than December 15.

The question was put squarely before the court in the arguments presented by former Senator Elihu Root, Lewis Meyer, William B. Guthrie, Walter C. Noyes and other nationally known lawyers in the recent test cases brought before the court on appeals from decisions, both sustaining and rejecting the law.

The immediate effect of such a decision would permit the sale in the territory of the United States of liquor held in bond and would afford relief for many banks which are holding the paper of distillers and warehouse men who own the stocks.

REVENUE COLLECTOR DENIES CLAIM FOR BEER TAX

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Nov. 22.—Federal Judge Pollock, at Kansas City, Kan., telephoned to Internal Revenue Collector Moore here shortly after noon today telling him that he had signed today a decision rejecting the claim of the collector for the beer tax.

The collector had claimed that the collector was entitled to the tax on beer manufactured and sold in the state of Missouri.

BAN AGAINST BEER MAY BE SMITHED TODAY
BY ST. LOUIS SALOONS

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Nov. 22.—Beer of 2.75 alcoholic content was sold freely in St. Louis today following the issuance by Federal Judge John C. Pollock yesterday of a temporary injunction restraining interference with manufacture or sale of the beer.

Twelve breweries were ready to resume manufacture of the beverage. The decision was handed down by Judge Walter L. Hensley said the decision would be appealed.

WETS PLAN ATTACK ON PROHIBITION

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—The eighteenth amendment to the constitution, establishing prohibition, will be attacked by the wets, it was learned today from attorneys participating in the supreme court arguments over the validity of the war-time prohibition.

"Constitutional prohibition" will be fought to the last ditch," it was stated.

RHODE ISLAND WILL ASK FOR IMMUNITY

Already plans are being laid to attack the amendment about the same time it becomes effective January 15. The first move probably will be made by the state of Rhode Island, which will ask the supreme court for immunity from enforcement of the amendment on the ground that the state legislature has never ratified it.

To fight the case, the legislature has authorized the expenditure of $100,000, according to attorneys for the state, who are here to get points from the arguments on war-time prohibition.

The suit being that of a state against the United States, will be instituted in the supreme court, thus assuring expedition.

CLAIMS USURPATION OF POWER OF STATE

Rhode Island, the state attorneys say, will not only strive to remain out of the case but will work to prevent the amendment from being put into effect.

A like case is expected from Ohio and the supreme court is expected to hand down its decision on the amendments as to whether states can withdraw their previous ratifications.

Man Who Fired Fatal Bullets at S. F. Officer Tells of the Crime in Boastful Manner; Two Confession Made Agree

SAN JOSE, Nov. 22.—After a grueling examination by Detective James Gallagher of the San Francisco police force and Sheriff George Lyle of San Jose, a man, who was shot while bandits who stole policeman.

With Paul Freeman, McClure was captured yesterday afternoon after having shot and probably fatally wounded Deputy Sheriff Condon when Condon took the men captive.

Freeman admitted to other officials that he was involved with McClure in the Schoombs murder at almost the same time the confession was wrung from his partner.

San Francisco police will seek to have the men tried in that city for the murder of Schoombs. Chief of Police D. A. White and Captain of Detectives Duncan Matheson of San Francisco have been ordered to interview the men.

After boastfully saying, "I killed Detective Schoombs," Freeman said last Sunday. McClure made the following admission to the police:

lagger and Lyle: CALM TELLS OF KILLING DETECTIVE

"Freeman and myself came from the north. We were in San Jose last Saturday night and stole a machine and went to San Francisco.

"While in San Francisco early Sunday we abandoned the machine and stole a car and stole a car we found on the street.

"It was about 10:30 last Sunday night when we parked the automobile on Eddy street near the front of the city. Freeman and myself went into a restaurant to get something to eat.

"We came out of the restaurant in about fifteen minutes and seated ourselves in the automobile. It was then that we started off. Detective Schoombs jumped on the running board.

"Schoombs leaned over me and turned off the switch. As he did so I hit him over the head with a revolver which I carried on the seat next to me.

"Schoombs drew a revolver and said he would shoot unless we surrendered. We then started off.

"Then I fired twice and shot Schoombs off the running board of the machine. This was at Eddy and Powell streets.

"When Schoombs turned off the switch, the automobile engine went dead. We had but little trouble in starting the machine again, although a big crowd gathered.

"I drove like mad east on Market street down Third street, circled the city and when we arrived at Sutter and Scott streets we jumped out of the machine and deserted it.

"The car was then taken to the Third and Townsend streets depot and boarded the San Jose local arriving in San Jose early Monday.

"That's all there is to it. I am tired. Let me go to sleep. I am tired. Let me go to sleep."

TWO STORIES ARE PRACTICALLY THE SAME

The story of Freeman was practically the same. Freeman was shot at the hand by Schoombs when the car was started. Freeman was shot at the hand by Schoombs when the car was started.

The pair of slavers met in the state reform camp at Monroe, Wash., where McClure was serving a sentence for stealing an automobile early in 1915. His career of crime was started, so he said, shortly after his mother's death in 1917. Both Freeman and McClure were released from the reform school six months ago, coming to California immediately after their release.

After yesterday afternoon Deputy Sheriff Condon and George Lyle arrested the men in San Jose. After being taken to San Francisco, the men were held in the city jail. The men were held in the city jail. The men were held in the city jail.

CLASH BETWEEN D'ANNUNZIO AND ITALY PREDICTED

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS. LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

LONDON, Nov. 22.—The situation on the Adriatic as a result of Gabriele D'Annunzio's campaign has reached a crisis. Private advices leave no doubt that he is determined to annex Dubrovnik and attack Montenegro.

The Jugo-Slavs are stated to have concentrated troops and to be prepared to resist aggression.

Another report says a Republican underground directed against the Italian monarchy exists among D'Annunzio's forces.

It is stated in the advices that further aggression by D'Annunzio will certainly precipitate hostilities with the Italian government.

It is declared that the attack against D'Annunzio and not against the Italian government.

ELECTIONS UNFAVORABLE TO POET'S CAUSE.

D'Annunzio, it appears, has been urged to further efforts by the fact that the Italian elections were unfavorable to his cause. Many adventures are flocking to his standard, the reports state, and among a certain element there seems to be a desire to make him president of Italy.

Some well informed quarters believe he secretly desires to annex Dubrovnik for Italy and has no intention of making any move in that direction. However, there appears to be no doubt that he has not abandoned his plan of aggression in the Adriatic.

A late report from Rome says the Italian government has decided to make a military move which favors the annexation of Dubrovnik has brought such strong pressure to bear upon the government that the situation is not known, however, whether the government will share the reported intention of this military element to attack the government.

Today's London dispatches supplement advices from Rome received last night which reported the American ambassador in Rome, Mr. Clegg, had been urged to make a move in that direction.

LITTLE GIRL, HIT BY AUTO, NEAR DEATH

The latest victim of serious automobile accidents in Oakland is six-year-old Helen Dowd, 2209 East Sixteenth street, who may die from injuries received last night at Twenty-third street and East Nineteenth street, according to the report of Providence hospital today.

The child probably has internal injuries, besides lacerations and bruises about the head and body. Her condition is pronounced as very serious. An X-ray examination will be made today.

The child was run over by an automobile driven by Burton Eber, 535 Twentieth street. Eber was driving the child to the emergency hospital. The child was then taken to Providence hospital.

WHEELS PASS OVER CHILD.

From all indications the wheels of Eber's car passed over the chest of the little girl. She has several chest bruises, hospital attaches said.

The little girl was crossing the street at Twenty-third street and East Nineteenth street, when struck, according to a police report.

Police inspectors who visited the home of the parents, were told by the father that he had the names of two witnesses, who saw Eber speeding and driving in a reckless manner. Eber was not arrested.

SPEEDER GETS TEN DAYS.

BERKELEY, Nov. 22.—A thrilling automobile race in which several shots were fired by a pursuing officer ended in the arrest this morning of John Theall, 19-year-old automobile mechanic, residing at 2007 Virginia street.

Theall was given a sentence of ten days in the county jail by Judge Robert Edgar after pleading guilty to a charge of speeding. Patrolman H. P. Lee, the arresting officer, related to the court a thrilling story of the chase, which started at College avenue and Webster street and ended at Vernon and Santa Clara streets in Oakland, where the police finally overtook the fleeing auto.

Theall's speedy pace was emulated by the Berkeley officials in disposing of his case. His arrest occurred at 8:20 o'clock this morning as he was on his way to work. At 9 o'clock Judge Edgar called his case in court and at 9:05 the youthful speeder was on the way to the county jail.

REDUCTION PLANT IS OFFERED CITY

Another proposal for the handling of Oakland's garbage was filed with City Clerk Cummings this morning by E. C. Emery, representing the Universal Conservation company of Los Angeles, and will be laid before the city council for consideration Monday.

The company, which recently filed a similar proposal for the creation of a garbage reduction plant in which the city's refuse would be converted into an artificial food product, proposes to erect a concrete plant for the reduction of garbage and its conversion into a food product, and to lease the plant to the city for years at an annual rental of $60,000, the plant to become the property of the city at the end of the ten years.

The plant proposed is to have a capacity of 40,000 tons of garbage a year and the city is guaranteed not less than $20 a ton for the finished product of the reduction. According to Emery, the city will receive an annual income of $480,000 a year through the operation of the plant.

$12,077, MONTH'S DOCK REVENUES

The city received revenues from the municipal wharves and docks amounting to $12,077.54 during the past month, according to the report submitted to the city council by City Wharfinger W. J. Masterson.

Four hundred and eighty-three vessels docked at the city wharves during the month, bringing a net registered tonnage of 240,309 and 34,855 tons of cargo. The lumber handled amounted to a total of 14,062,500 feet.

Mayor Davie Leaves for Month Vacation

Mayor John L. Davie left this afternoon on the steamer Casco for a trip to San Diego to spend the first portion of the thirty-day leave of absence recently granted him by the city council. The mayor will return on the same vessel and afterwards will make another sea trip to Seattle and back if the southern voyage results in an improvement in his health, which has been poor for several weeks. Later on, before returning to his office, the mayor will visit his son in the northern part of the state, and will "rough it" for a time in the mountains.

Freedom From War and Pestilence Pointed Out As Cause for Gratitude

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Nov. 22.—Governor William D. Stephens in his proclamation issued today declaring Thanksgiving Day, November 27th, a legal holiday in California, said:

The President of the United States has proclaimed Thursday, the 27th day of November, 1919, as Thanksgiving Day.

It becomes the duty of the Governor likewise to declare that day a legal holiday and to remind the people of the State of the occasion when expression is given of praise to Almighty God for the beneficencies that have been granted them.

One year ago there was solemn rejoicing over the ending of the awful world conflict. The griefs of war weighed heavily upon us. A raging epidemic was carrying death to many homes. In those hours of dire trial the faith of our people in Divine Providence never wavered. In the intervening year that faith has been amply justified. We can see bright days ahead. God has been good to us and will preserve us a nation with the historic ideals and with the most practical accomplishments for the welfare of mankind, if we but do our part individually and collectively in preserving law and order, in the practice of the golden rule and in upholding the flag of our country at all times.

Time is healing the sorrows of the battlefield and prosperity is with our people everywhere. The burden of nature has been unmeasured during this past year and we should be thankful that California has had such a generous part in helping to mitigate starvation in the world.

Now, therefore, I, William D. Stephens, governor of the State of California, do hereby proclaim Thursday, November 27, to be a legal holiday for thanksgiving and prayer.

Mrs. Atherton Raps Plumb Plan Thinks Labor Party Good Thing

LOS GATOS, Nov. 22.—Gertrude Atherton, novelist, arrived here yesterday, armed with a typewriter and is prepared to pass the remainder of the winter here, at work on a new book.

Mrs. Atherton has very decided opinions about issues before the public.

"What do you think of the Plumb plan for railroad control which Ex-Congressman Dill will advocate in San Jose Saturday?" Mrs. Atherton was asked.

"I think the Plumb plan is a piece of class legislation which cannot possibly be accepted in America," she replied.

"There is a great middle class in this country, and millions of sensible farmers. This great bulk of the population certainly will not stand for anything like the Plumb plan, which would place the control of the country and its vital industries in the hands of one class."

"Do you think the labor men are premature in planning to form a labor party in America?"

"Why, let 'em have a labor party here if they want to. It is their privilege to do it if they wish. They have one in England, you know. I certainly have no objection to their forming a political party. The main thing is to shut out the foreign agitators and the Bolsheviks in America, who are the ones who are doing the real harm, and stirring up the serious trouble."

"Do you think Mayor General Leonard Wood has a chance to become president at the next election?"

"I think Wood is a splendid man, but the man I would most like to see in the presidential chair is Herbert Hoover. He is the one big American who has come through this war with an absolutely unblemished reputation."

FLIERS INSPECT AIR MOTOR PLANT

Representatives of the aviation committee of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce, headed by Eugene Bowles, secretary of the committee, accompanied seventeen members of the Allied Fliers' Club of Berkeley on an inspection trip to the plant of the Hall-Scott Motor Company of West Berkeley yesterday afternoon and watched the making of airplane motors.

F. H. Baxter, vice-president of the corporation, took the visitors through the factory, and showed them how the motors they have been using in the army are constructed. The fliers watched construction from the crude castings to the perfectly finished engines.

Of particular interest to the visitors was the method employed by the company in tuning up the finished engine. Two of the latest type Hall-Scott airplane motors were placed on the testing blocks for inspection.

Twin motors that are used in the new mail planes were also inspected. With both motors in operation the planes can make 110 miles an hour. One of the motors got out of order, and the other still maintain a speed of 85 miles an hour. Another of the plant's productions which pleased the visitors was a new type twelve-cylinder engine.

Baxter assured the members of the club that the company would do all in its power to further the interests of aviation.

GIRLS BLAMED FOR ELOPEMENT

Howard Reese, age 22, who was convicted by a jury in Judge T. W. Harris' court, contributing to the delinquency of a minor in having eloped with seventeen-year-old Mrs. Doris Haney, was granted probation today by Judge A. F. St. Sure, sitting in Judge Harris' court, on recommendation of Probation Officer Leonard Compton.

Reese took Mrs. Haney to Stockton, according to the evidence, after she had agreed to elope with Gayford Rutherford, a friend of Reese and of the same age. Rutherford, claiming him to stay there while he remained in Oakland to see whether the girl's parents made trouble over her disappearance. When Rutherford reached Stockton he found Reese and Mrs. Haney had returned to Oakland and were living together in a private home where they had secured apartments. Compton's report said he considered Mrs. Haney more to blame than Reese and that the latter had been for years under the domination of Rutherford.

LEGION TO BACK REAL AMERICANS

"The American Legion stands for 100 per cent Americanism and believes that a man can be 100 per cent American and be either a union labor man or a non-union man," said Captain J. Petersen, president of the American Legion, Oakland post, this morning in discussing accusations made by several labor leaders that the legion went on record in favor of the open shop Tuesday night.

Continuing, Captain Petersen said that the action taken last Tuesday was on motion of a union member of the legion to make a record of the post's stand that so long as its members are 100 per cent American, the post will back them in any effort to obtain work and will support them in their constitutional right to work. A large number of union men in the bay district, who belong to the legion, misunderstood the action of the legion Tuesday night, and demanded an explanation of the Oakland post's apparent declaration in favor of the open shop.

ENOUGH MEN ARE EXPECTED IN SHIPYARDS

Eastbay shipyards will throw open their gates at 7 o'clock Monday morning, and it is believed that by 8 o'clock sufficient men will be at work to enable each yard to proceed with the completion of vessels that were left virtually ready for launching when the strike was called, October 1.

There is some controversy between employers and employees as to the number of men expected to come to work, the employers asserting that in excess of 11,000 men have signed, while the representatives of the labor organizations say that nowhere near that many will be found ready for work Monday morning. It is acknowledged by the employers that there are not enough machinists, brass fitters and coppersmiths registered for re-employment to enable all the yards to operate at full capacity.

It is believed that there will be no demonstration on the part of organized labor, Monday, but, at the request of the employers, police protection will be detailed at each yard entrance.

The situation as it applies to shipyards applies also to foundries and machine shops, one of a few of which said the extra wage schedule that caused the strike.

WOMAN GIVEN 1 TO 10 YEARS FOR SWINDLES

Miss Florence Bliss, convicted of obtaining money under false pretenses, was denied probation by Judge A. F. St. Sure this morning and sentenced to from one to ten years in San Quentin.

Application was made for probation, but this was opposed by Deputy District Attorney Frank M. Shay, who pointed out that there were no mitigating circumstances in the case.

that Miss Bliss had forced the county to stand the expense of convicting her and that she had been accused of numerous other fraudulent transactions.

Attorney Albert Jones, representing the defendant, moved for a new trial, which was denied, and gave notice of appeal. A ten days' stay in execution of sentence was granted. Miss Bliss has been in the county jail since her conviction.

The complaining witness in the case was W. R. Lansdale, who charged that he and members of his family were promised positions in a mine in Nevada and that they moved there, shipping their furniture, but failed to secure the work. Miss Bliss, it was charged, told them of fabulous wealth possessed by her in Canada and elsewhere, which was mythical.

The testimony also showed that Miss Bliss had been accused of joining with a clerk at the Hotel Athens in a scheme whereby a Mrs. Margaret McIntyre was induced to sign her name on a blank sheet of paper, after which a will was written about the signature leaving her entire estate to Miss Bliss.

VALLEJO, Nov. 22.—The case of C. B. Hensley, one of the members of the congregation of the First Christian church who was arrested last September and charged with disturbing the peace on a charge sworn to by Rev. W. D. The request to dismiss the case was made by Attorney H. E. Manning who acted as counsel for Phillips. Hensley was represented by Attorney W. J. McCreary of San Francisco and at least thirty witnesses had been subpoenaed by both sides.

The case was the outcome of a meeting held at the church on the 15th of September last and for a time it was believed that some highly important matter would be brought out, but the action taken on the part of counsel for the pastor put an end to the matter.

After charges were brought against Hensley and he was forced to leave the church, he brought the misdemeanor charge against Hensley, who was active in opposing Phillips.

Welsh Here
To Present
Rhys Lewis

Welsh people on both sides of the bay are looking forward to Tuesday evening, November 25, when the Dramatic Society of the Welsh Presbyterian Church will present the famous play, Welsh Dragon. The play has been adopted as the theme for the year, and was written by Daniel Owen, the "Welsh Dickens," as he has been sometimes called. The play is the best attempt at an interpretation of the life of Daniel Owen, and as it affects the religious life of the principality, Daniel Owen, himself a member of the Welsh Presbyterian Church of his native land, tells in his own inimitable way something of the life of the man who has been a student for the ministry. He also analyses the differences that existed between the nonconformist or "Free Church," and the Church of England, and the differences in the character of the characters is made so vivid that the state church thinks there are good reasons for its existence.

One could quote several such points

Following is a list of those making up the cast:

MRS. GATT IN BAY DISTRICT FOR MEETINGS

Party of Distinguished Leaders in Suffrage Movement Arrives Here; Will Speak at Meetings in Next Four Days

Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, famous suffrage advocate and president of the National League of Women Voters, with a party of distinguished women, including Mrs. E. Jean Nelson, attorney and lecturer; Miss Jessie Haver, legislative representative of the National Consumers' League; Miss Margaret Shuler, child welfare worker, and Dr. Valeria Parker, social worker, arrived in the bay cities this morning for a sojourn of four days. Mrs. Catt will be entertained in San Francisco. The other members of the party will make their headquarters at Mills College. Mrs. F. G. Law is chairman of the local committee arranging for their visit.

Sacramento women, who have been leaders in the suffrage work in the State and Nation, this morning were hostesses at breakfast to Mrs. Catt and her companions.

will give over Tuesday to the formal entertainment of the noted guests. A mass meeting in Hotel Oakland in the afternoon and a second larger mass meeting in the First Congregational church in the evening, with Mrs. Catt presenting her famous address, "Wake Up, America," will afford the public an opportunity of hearing the eastern leaders discuss the problems in politics, high cost of living, child welfare and law.

If you saw it in The TRIBUNE, tell them so. Thank you.

BREKIDLEY, Nov. 21—Even money on today's game, California against Oregon, which was a very close struggle, which was eagerly awaited by Blue and Gold supporters, two weeks ago, is not to be found on the morning of the battle. The odds are 10 to 1 in favor of the Blue. Cardinal backers are those that think the Blue will win by more than three touchdowns. Stanford rooters are asking 3 to 1 odds that they will not be defeated by more than one touchdown.

The Bear varsity rested at the Mount Diablo "Country Club" last night. Smith, anxious to relax his aching muscles, is the leading candidate for an expected workout on the Stanford field.

The game is to be played in the afternoon. The game is to be played in the afternoon.
